New Year's Message

2008 is already shaping up to be a busy year!

Just to make sure, I'll put this on the top of the first page - SCOS meetings are now monthly on the third Sunday of each month. We will continue to meet at the Garden Club's facility at Maxcy Gregg Park.

Stan was busily gathering plants to take up to the show in Greensboro this weekend. Everyone seems to be having the same issues - everything is either blooming early or late this year. Nearly all of my catts finished early, and the paphs and phrags just don't know what to do. Things look good for our show, though, with plenty of buds working their way up.

There's plenty to get accomplished at the society's January meeting. The election was put off due to low attendance in November, and we need to take care of that this month. Also, Ed was kind enough to send everyone copies of the proposed revisions to the By-Laws, so we should be able to make that a quick vote.

And, of course, we're getting ready to heat the Carolinas up with the ## 2008 Riverbanks Orchid Festival!

We will be talking about the final plans, preparation of plants and other fun topics at the January meeting. Please be sure to attend so we can get everything going for a great 08!

November Minutes

Harry Gallis, MD, spoke to the members in attendance at the November meeting regarding the activities of the American Orchid Society and the Carolinas Judging Center. While we would normally have held our biannual elections at the meeting, there were insufficient members to establish quorum and the election has been put off until the January meeting.

Then those present all settled in for a multi-course multicultural multi-holiday celebration feast.

The silent auction sponsored by the Carolina's Judging Center of the AOS brought in $700, making this the biggest donation from SCOS members. We received wonderful support from our area greenhouses, with choice contributions from (alphabetical order) Carolina Orchids (Rock Hill, SC), Carter & Holmes (Newberry, SC), Seagrove Orchids (Seagrove, NC) and Woodland Orchids (Charlotte, NC). SCOS members' plants were received from Mark Donahue, Ed & Bertha Harris, Stan Hutto, David Janvrin, and Eddie & Shotci Weigle.

January Meeting

Hard to imagine, but the show season is already upon us. As I'm writing, it's now only 30 days until the 2008 Riverbanks Orchid Festival sponsored by... US! Stan will be talking to the group at the January meeting about preparing plants for the show & all of the typical final arrangements to make this year another great success.

Another important issue for discussion and vote at the January meeting will be the revision of the South Carolina Orchid Society By-Laws and Incorporation Document. These modifications need to be approved in order to be in compliance with the IRS requirements for a 501-C(3) educational organization.

Please remember to bring plants for the Show Table.

Nominations for 2008-09 Officers

At the September meeting, the nominating committee of Don McLellan, Betty Polk and Clara Hornsby presented the slate of prospective officers for the next two years.
